

Title: Vaccine Immunity Following Splenectomy

IRB# 2009-079

Principal Investigator: Alexander Lucas, PhD

Synopsis:

This study will involve one 3 year-old child who received conjugated polysaccharide vaccines as standard practice after vaccination and proposes to evaluate the antibody response to conjugate vaccine antigens after splenectomy and vaccination using a new molecular method to clone native Fab fragments from peripheral blood.